GP IM is an initial list of 38 indicators that currently cover three of our five key questions - Effective, Responsive and Caring. The indicators used in IM are already included within the location data packs that you can access pre inspection. As with the approach followed in the Hospitals sector the tool draws on existing and established national data sources (e.g. QOF, GP Patient Survey), and each GP practice has been categorised into one of six priority bands for inspection, with Band 1 representing the highest priority.

This report presents CQCs view of the IM indicators for Friargate Surgery. The IM methodology identifies indicator scores that are significantly worse than the expected value, which is usually defined as the national average. Indicators are flagged as showing 'no evidence of risk', 'risk' or 'elevated risk' depending on the difference between the indicator score and the expected value. This terminology may change for future releases, given the differences between Primary and Secondary Care, and that practices generally perform well in QOF / GPPS data. An overall score for each practice is calculated, based on the proportion of their indicators that are a risk or elevated risk, and this is used to allocate the practice to a priority band.

The bandings help to inform:

- scheduling decisions
- identify potential risks
- key lines of enquiry

We have published a document setting out the definition and full methodology for each indicator, a paper on the statistical methodology and a Frequently Asked Questions document. If, after consulting these documents, you have any further queries or need more information please email enquiries@cqc.org.uk putting the phrase "GP IM Query" in the subject line.
